

A high-angle photograph of a rustic baguette, partially unwrapped from its brown paper, resting on a light grey surface. To the right, a small blue bowl contains butter, with a knife spreading it onto a slice of bread. In the foreground, a wooden cutting board holds several slices of baguette, some with butter. A green cloth is visible at the bottom. A yellow speech bubble with the word 'NYHET!' is positioned above the main title.

NYHET!
